WHO'S WHO IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Leon G. Godley, First Deputy Police Commissioner, came to New York City in 1892 from Curtis, N. Y.

When Godley came to Manhattan he was a stenographer and worked in a law office until 1897, when he became secretary of the late Edward M. Shepard.

He studied law and resigned as secretary in 1907. In 1908 he became the managing clerk in Shepard's law office.

He was an Assistant Corporation Counsel from 1910 until 1914, and resigned to become Third Deputy Police Commissioner on February 3, 1914.

He is a member of the Crescent Athletic Club, the Brooklyn Bar Association and of the faculty of St. Lawrence University Law School.
